PREPARING FOR YOUR SUMMATIVE EVALUATION

With the passage of TEACHNJ and AchieveNJ, the summative evaluation process for teachers has changed dramatically. This workshop will focus upon the compiling of important data and aligning data and artifacts to evaluation rubrics in an effort to predict and achieve high summative evaluation ratings. Participants will understand each component of their summative evaluation, how each component is derived, and discuss advocacy methods for improving summative evaluation scores.

"Using Restorative Justice Practices to Promote a Positive Culture and Supportive Climate in Schools"

As school districts move away from zero tolerance discipline policies and increase efforts to strengthen safe and supportive schools, address conflict, improve school climate, and build a positive school culture that students are connected to, many are looking to implement alternative, restorative approaches. Learn what steps schools can take to ensure equity and fairness in the cultivation of improved relationships through fair, respectful and effective approaches to discipline.
